By submitting a proxy form, you will be able to ensure that your vote on the proposed resolutions is cast at the AGM in accordance with your wishes without attending in person.
4. If, due to local developments and/or measures to be taken by the government of the Republic of Cyprus for Coronavirus (COVID-19) is not possible to convene and hold the AGM either in compliance with applicable public health guidelines or requirements, applicable law or where it is otherwise considered that proceeding with the AGM as planned poses an unacceptable risk to health and safety, the AGM may be adjourned to a different time and/or venue, in which case notification of such adjournment will be given in accordance with the constitutional documents of the Company. The Attendance and Proxy Form must be executed by the person appointing the proxy or on that person's behalf, by an officer (if it is a corporation), agent or attorney, duly authorised in writing.

C. VOTING PROCEDURES AT GENERAL MEETINGS

1. At any general meeting a resolution put to the vote of the meeting shall be decided on a show of hands ("Simple Vote") unless a poll (before or on the declaration of the result of the show of hands) is demanded:
 - a) by the Chairperson, or
 - b) by at least three shareholders present and entitled to vote at the general meeting whether in person or by proxy, or
 - c) by any shareholder or shareholders present in person or by proxy and representing in aggregate at least one-tenth of the total voting rights of all the shareholders having the right to vote at the meeting, or
 - d) by any director of the Company present at the general meeting.

If a poll be demanded in the manner aforesaid it must be held immediately after it is duly demanded. The demand for a poll may be withdrawn, before the declaration of its result but only with the consent of the Chairperson.

On Simple Vote a resolution put to the vote of the meeting is decided on a show of hands and thereby each shareholder has one vote. If a poll is demanded a resolution put to the vote of the meeting is decided by the voting rights attached to each of the shares that a shareholder has, (for example each shareholder has 1 vote per each share that he holds).

Unless a poll is demanded:

- a) a declaration by the Chairperson that a resolution is on a Simple Vote carried or carried unanimously or by a particular majority, or lost (i.e. the resolution is not passed); and
- b) an entry to that effect in the book containing the minutes of the proceedings of the general meeting, shall together constitute conclusive evidence of the fact without proof of the number or proportion of the votes in favour of or against the resolution.

2. Subject any special rights attached to a share in the issued share capital of the Company, on a Simple Vote every shareholder present in person or by Proxy shall have one vote and where a poll is demanded every shareholder shall have one vote for every share of which the shareholder is the holder; For so long as the Company is a listed company, on a Simple Vote every shareholder on the Record Date present in person or by Proxy shall, subject to any special rights attached to a share in the issued share capital of the Company, have one vote and where a poll is demanded every shareholder present in person or by Proxy shall, subject to any special rights attached to a share in the issued share capital of the Company, have one vote for every share of which the shareholder is the Holder on the Record Date.
3. Passing of an Ordinary Resolution: Any decision regarding the normal business of the AGM will be reached (unless otherwise provided in the Articles of Association) with an Ordinary Resolution. An Ordinary Resolution is a resolution passed at a general meeting by a simple majority (50%+1 share) of shareholders of the Company entitled to vote and vote at the meeting either in person or by proxy.
4. In the event that a shareholder does not vote on a particular resolution, then it is considered as abstention (it is not calculated) for counting the votes for the specific resolution.
5. At the date of convening of the AGM, the Company's issued share capital equals to EUR 1,428,999.79 and it is divided into 142,899,979 shares having a par value of EUR 0.01 each, all of which are fully paid up. Each share is entitled to one vote.
6. The proposed resolutions at the AGM will be decided by way of a poll.
